O'Rourke was one of three Hoosiers to earn All-America honors following the 2004 championship run. Not only was he named a first team All-American, but the Columbus, Ohio, native took home college soccer's top prize, being named the 2004 Missouri Athletic Club Hermann Trophy winner. During his career, the Hoosiers were 69-15-9 overall with four regular season Big Ten titles, two Big Ten tournament championships, three College Cup Appearances and two NCAA Championships. He was a team captain during both championship years and was regarded as one of the toughest players and best ball winners in college soccer. Along with being named college soccer's top players, he was also named its top scholar in 2004, taking home the National Soccer Coaches Association of America Scholar Athlete of the Year award.

IU ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

ANGELO DIBERNARDO

1991 IU HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

DiBernardo became Indiana's first twotime soccer All-American as he earned first team honors both in 1977 and 1978 and became the Hoosiers' first Hermann Trophy award winner as he took home the award in his final season (1978). He was selected to Soccer America's All-Century team in 2000. DiBernardo played just three seasons for the Hoosiers before playing in the professional ranks. In just three years, he scored 54 goals and 125 points, which ranks sixth on the IU all-time points scored list. DiBernardo, a two-time All-Region selection, is one of just two players in IU history to have scored five goals or more in a game. The Hoosiers posted a 53-5-2 mark during DiBernardo's career. DiBernardo was elected to the IU Hall of Fame in 1991.

ARMANDO BETANCOURT

1992 IU HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

Betancourt was named Soccer America's Player of the Decade for the 1980's and earned All-America honors during all three of his seasons at IU. He opened the decade by winning the Hermann Trophy Award in 1981 and earned first team All-America honors for the second time in his career that same season. He ranks third on the school's all-time points scored list with 64 goals and 165 points, despite playing just three seasons before turning professional. Betancourt was one of three Hoosiers named to Soccer America's All-Century team in 2000 and earned All-Region honors during all three of his seasons, in which IU posted a 61-8-3 record. Betancourt was elected to the IU Hall of Fame in 1992.

JOHN STOLLMEYER

1999 IU HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

Stollmever was a three-time All-American and a member of Soccer America's All-Decade team in the 1980's. His career at Indiana could not have begun any better as the Hoosiers won their first two NCAA crowns in his first two seasons at IU. He became just the second Hoosier to earn All-America honors three times in his career, as he was awarded third team accolades, garnering his third honor in 1985. He concluded his career with 27 goals and 93 points and Indiana posted a 76-15-8 during his four-year career. Stollmeyer was elected to the IU Hall of Fame in 1999.

GREGG THOMPSON

2007 IU HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

Thompson co-captained the 1982 Indiana soccer team which claimed the program's first NCAA Championship. In the NCAA title game against Duke, it was Thompson who scored both goals in the 2-1, eight-overtime victory. After his career at Indiana, Thompson spent three years as a member of the U.S. National Team, serving as a member of the 1984 U.S. Olympic team. He played professionally with the Tampa Bay Rowdies and the Minnesota Strikers from 1983-88. Thompson was elected to the IU Hall of Fame in 2007.

program. INTERVIEW REQUESTS

MEDIA RELATIONS CONTACT

All interview requests for Indiana's players and coaches must be directed to Melanie Schneider. Players will be available based on their class schedules, primarily after practice, which is scheduled from 4 to 6 p.m. during the week. Personal phone numbers will not be made available to members of the media, and all Indiana student-athletes have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval of the media relations staff.

Assistant director of media relations and men's soccer contact Melanie Schneider (ms48@ indiana.edu; cell: 812-325-6789) will handle

all media requests for the Indiana men's soccer

POSTMATCH INTERVIEW POLICY

Head Coach Todd Yeagley and selected players will be available after a cooling-off period. The Indiana locker room is closed. Media should contact Melanie Schneider to set up any postgame interviews with Coach Yeagley or players.

Postmatch procedures on the road will be in line with the host school's postmatch procedures.

INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available at Armstrong Stadium. Please see Melanie Schneider prior to the match to receive instructions on how to access the wireless internet system.
